and our school favourite... the Prize Raffle

And of course, a visit from a
'special guest'.

Raffle tickets are on sale from Monday either from the school office or your class teacher. £1 per ticket, prizes include food and gift hampers, meal and days out vouchers.

Next Friday is non uniform day in exchange for chocolate for the tombola.

We are asking for donations of cakes to sell at the fayre, please can these be brought to school either Monday 9th or Tuesday 10th December.

With Christmas approaching and children receiving new toys it is important to remind ourselves about toy safety. A leaflet from The Child Accident Prevention Trust has been posted on Tapstry. Please have a read.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Enoch, you have had a super week all round. You have challenged yourself with your phonic sounds, sang beautifully in our Nativity rehearsals and been a very kind friend.

Elm Class – Harry C, you are always a kind and caring friend to everyone and are always respectful when looking after the things in our classroom and school. Thank you

Oak Class – Owen, for adjusting to wearing your new glasses so well and trying your hardest to write words using your sounds.

Holly Class – Thomas W, for your excellent writing this week. You wrote a recount of our walk to MG Car Factory using the past tense. We are really proud of how you are becoming more confident when sharing your ideas.

Hazel Class – Kara, for taking on her class monitor role with a sense of responsibility and determination. She has been a wonderful helper and has made everyone smile whilst she does it. Thank you.

Willow Class – Evelyn, for your fantastic writing this week. You wrote a super recount of our walk to MG. You used the suffix 'ed' to write in the past tense. We are so proud of you.

Chestnut Class – Rosemary, this week, you've taken your time and tried your very best in your reading quiz, and you've been so successful. We're so proud of your hard work and determination.

Hawthorn Class – Joshua, you have made some phenomenal progress in Maths. You have used your prior knowledge and new skills to tackle lessons this week. Keep up the good work.

Sycamore Class – Roman, you have been a delightful member of Sycamore Class this week. You have shown a positive attitude to your learning and are always kind and helpful.

Well done everyone!
