This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class—Ted, you impressed me with your animal knowledge this week. You were able to match the animal to the right habitat and could even describe some of the ways they are suited to their environment.

Elm Class—River, you have worked really hard on your writing this week. You are using your sounds and making sure your letters are written beautifully. Well done.

Oak Class—Korah, for your mature attitude and enthusiasm to learn, especially in your phonics group with Mrs Bull. We're so proud of you.

Holly Class—Arthur, for a brilliant piece of writing this week about instructions. You independently came up with your ideas and carefully sound talked words in your work. We are so impressed with your confidence, well done.

Hazel Class—Arthur, he is a wonderful scientist and he has added lots of facts and information when we learnt to classify birds this week. Thank you for your enthusiasm Arthur.

Willow Class—Aiden, for your enthusiasm in Maths this week. You were able to confidently explain your thinking when exploring tens and ones with numbers to 20. We are so impressed with you.

Chestnut Class—Harley, you've had such a positive week, completing your tasks with a great attitude and always trying your best. We're so proud of you – keep up the fantastic work.

Hawthorn Class—Jacob, you have been making incredible progress this term. You have become more confident and vocal in class, sharing ideas and joining in group discussions. Your enthusiasm has carried over into tapestry challenges, where you have been pushing your learning even further. You have developed a fantastic understanding of money during our maths lessons this week. Keep shining.

Sycamore Class—Dawood, you have shown many of our school values this week. You have been a good friend, worked hard and made sensible choices.
