Studybugs—Reporting Pupil Absence

Thank you to all the parents who have downloaded the Studybugs app, our new reporting system for pupil absence.
(<https://studybugs.com/about/parents>) or follow the QR code.

Parking-

Please do not park on the zig zags or pedestrian crossing outside school when dropping off or picking up your children. This is for the safety of pedestrians and our children.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class—Parker-Jay, you built some fantastic models in the construction area this week. You had exciting ideas about what you would like to make, found everything you need to make it and then shared them with your friends. Well done.

Elm Class—Elaana, you always do your weekend challenges and this week found out all about foxes, squirrels, moles and badgers. Thank you and well done.

Oak Class—Eden, you are a kind and caring friend who is always willing to help others, especially when they are new to oak Class. You bring a smile to our faces. Thank you.

Holly Class—Isabella B, for drawing and labelling a wonderful fish with its different features. You impressed us with your confidence when explaining why fish need a tail and gills. Well done.

Hazel Class—Theo, you worked hard in PE this week. You created a wonderful dance routine with a partner. You remembered to count to a beat of 8 and made each movement clear and precise. Well done.

Willow Class—Phoebe, for your work in science this week. You drew a detailed picture of a fish and labelled it carefully. You thought about each feature. Well done.

Chestnut Class—Abigail, this week you have tried really hard in writing. Your hard work and dedication towards achieving your writing target this week has been inspiring. Keep aiming for the stars.

Hawthorn Class—Ellarnie, you are always kind and caring towards everyone, whether it's friends or adults in the classroom. You spread positivity wherever you go. Not only are you caring and compassionate, but you also try hard in everything you do. Keep up the hard work.

Sycamore Class—Neima, you are always very helpful to all your friends (and teachers) in Sycamore Class. You tidy up without being asked, give out lunchtime badges and take the first aid bag outside if it is forgotten.

Well done everyone!
