Week 1

The Animal Lady

Nursery and Reception children had an fascinating visit from the Animal Lady. She brought a selection of animals and the children learned about each one and where they live and what they eat. The corn snake and bearded dragon were particular favourites. The children asked great questions and were keen to get involved.

Red Nose Day— next Friday 21st March

Children can come to school wearing something red for Red Nose Day in exchange for a 50p donation towards Comic Relief.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Miguel, you are a fantastic friend to everyone. You are always making your friends smile and encourage them to join in with your games. You are kind and caring and we are very lucky to have you in Ash Class.

Elm Class – Kajus, you have been working so hard in your phonics this week and have used your sounds so well when reading and writing. Well done.

Oak Class – Callie-Jayne, for your great listening and contributions during carpet sessions and always making the right choices. You are a great role model.

Holly Class – Willow S, for your brilliant work in in DT this week. You were enthusiastic when carefully designing what your car will look like. You used inspiration from our car fest to help with the small details. Well done Willow.

Hazel Class – Frankie, you have worked hard with all of your learning this week. In particular, you created a wonderful London map and wrote labels for each building. You worked really hard in PE and listened to all of the instruction carefully.

Willow Class – Rana, for your work in Geography this week. You could explain why London is a capital city and spoke about it in detail. You were able to identify landmarks in London and carefully focused on drawing their features.

Hawthorn Class – Peter, you have been calm and settled coming into school this week. You have been confidently using your iPad independently to communicate. On top of that, you're kind to everyone and always brighten our days—keep it up.

Chestnut Class – Blake, you've had an amazing couple of weeks, consistently making great choices and trying your best in every subject. I can always count on you to do the right thing and stay engaged on the carpet. Keep up the fantastic work.

Sycamore Class – Greyson, you have shown great responsibility this week and have really listened to our new school rule. Not only have you been tidying our classroom you picked up litter from outside that wasn't yours.

Well done everyone!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

14th March 2025 to 20th March 2025
