Children in Need 2025

As of lunchtime today we have raised over £160 in school. Donations can still be handed in to classteachers or the school office.

Top Tips for Raising Independent Children

"The greatest gifts you can give your children are the roots of responsibility and the wings of independence,"

Denis Waitley (best selling author)

When you next have a quiet moment, maybe sitting with a cuppa, have a look at the article on the back of this newsletter. It is taken from a website called Positive Parenting Solutions and is a useful read for anyone bringing up children in today's world. Many of the suggestions are embedded in our school curriculum and our school values and therefore will be familiar to children as they progress through our school.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class—Avina, we are so impressed with your reading and phonics. You are learning our sounds at a rapid pace and using them independently in your writing. Fantastic.

Elm Class—Isaac, you are always so kind and caring towards your friends. You always offer your help to anyone who needs it and are a great role model for Elm class.

Oak Class—Shay, we are really proud of you. You come into school every morning with a huge smile on your face, eager to listen and learn. You respect and follow class rules, share beautifully with your peers and you are a real credit to our class.

Holly Class—Ahmed, for being a phonics superstar this week. It has been lovely to see his determination to read each word correctly and his resilience when he needed to try again. Keep it up.

Hazel Class—Lincoln for his love of Forest school. You explore every inch of the outdoor area and use your imagination in such a wonderful way. We are very proud of you Lincoln

Willow Class—Leila, for your increasing confidence in Maths. You are beginning to work with more independence and enthusiasm. It is lovely to see the smile on your face when you solve a number problem. We are proud of you.

Chestnut Class—Adela, for your super dancing in PE this week. You danced with a big smile on your face and you were perfectly in time to the music. You were excellent at remembering all the steps. Well done.

Hawthorn Class—Mia, for your fantastic attitude to all your learning this week. You have shown determination and enthusiasm in every area, especially in art where you enjoyed using different pencils to experiment with sketching techniques. Keep it up.

Sycamore Class—Poppy, you read out a tricky passage in church with great confidence and a clear voice.

Well Done Everyone!
