(see website for menus)

This week's Weekend Challenge is based on the annual RSPB Garden Birdwatch. Post your children's home learning on Tapestry or return it in paperform to the classteacher. Every child that participates in these weekly challenges earns a raffle ticket which goes towards the half termly prize draw.

School Rules

We have three rules which we all try to follow, all of the time.

Kind Hands

Kind Feet

Kind Words

These simple rules help us to be aware of other people's feelings and to be kind friends and

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class— Thea, you have worked so hard on your letters and sounds both at home and at school. We are impressed with your confidence and how independent you have become.

Elm Class— Rhiannon, you have been fantastic in phonics and have developed a real love of reading. You always read at home so well done.

Oak Class— Koben, for ALWAYS doing the right thing and trying your hardest at all you do. You are a role model for other children in Oak and brighten our days with your smile.

Holly Class — Darrah, we are really proud of how resilient and focused you are with your learning. You are listening and taking on feedback from your teachers and you are not giving up when something is tricky or hard. Well done.

Hazel Class – Parker Jay, for trying new foods at lunch and experimenting with new tastes. We are all so very proud of how willing you are to try new things.

Willow Class — Liyana, you have had a wonderful first week in Willow class. You are so enthusiastic to learn, especially in Phonics. We have been impressed with your reading. Welcome to our school.

Chestnut Class — Willow, for your excellent work in history this week. You were eager to learn about Katherine Johnson and why she is famous. Your work was detailed and full of great vocabulary.

Hawthorn Class – Riley, for your excellent attitude towards all of your learning this week. You have been sharing your own ideas during carpet sessions and have been enthusiastic to help your friends too. Thank you

Sycamore Class - Nevaeh, you are working really hard, especially in Maths. You listen well and are determined to master new skills. Keep it up.

Well Done Everyone!
