COMMENTS

- Rednal Hill is an amazing well managed school with lovely teachers and students. It is clean and friendly.
- Child friendly, approachable, caring and great parent involvement.
- A friendly, traditional infant school with modern facilities and a gentle approach with the nursery class children.
- Supportive, encouraging caring and thoughtful children.
- Excellent school with fantastic choices of after school clubs and fantastic head teacher.
- Great teaching in a compassionate and supportive atmosphere. My child has flourished here.
- Welcoming family environment that regularly celebrates children's encouragements. Friendly staff and happy children.
- Great teachers! Caring people throughout.
- Innovative, friendly and encouraging.
- Lovely school, very welcoming when Sam moved from another school. Staff are all very helpful and approachable. Celebrates children's achievements.
- Ryan only started nursery last month, he loves coming to "big boy school" everyday. We are over the moon he will be starting reception in September.
- A lovely, happy school with a positive attitude towards development and learning.
- This school is out of our catchment but was our first choice. We are more than happy with everything and will be happy to see our younger child start in September. A fabulous nurturing environment.
- Rednal Hill has been a great educational experience to date.
- Rednal Hill was not one of our choices when selecting a school but we are so glad he got into this school as it is well managed and the teachers are great. Ethan says school is amazing.
- The school is a lovely school, well set out and looks welcoming. Reception staff are lovely and very helpful. Few complaints or concerns raised and I get support now.
- Such a lovely welcoming environment. Staff are very approachable and friendly. My child loves attending Rednal Hill!
- Rednal Hill is an excellent school and helps my child grow and learn.
- I feel both my children are cared for as individuals and the teachers know them well. I feel they are safe and well cared for.
- A fun environment that stimulates a great learning ethos.
- Miss Ryan is amazing, very pleased with George's progress.
- Very happy with Elizabeth's progress since September, shame she didn't have the same teacher the whole year.
- This is a great school and have been happy with my son attending here as has his father. Joseph has learnt so much in a short space of time and he really loves coming to school and learning new things.
- Rednal Hill has been very supportive and helpful in my sons settling period at school. I have found he is has become more confident in himself and subjects since starting.
- Excellent school. My children got the best start regarding their education. The staff are fantastic and do their very best for every child.
- You can sense the school is a happy school by the behaviour and the attitudes of the children and the staff.
- We appreciate all your hard work with our daughter, we are grateful for all love you give her.
- I would recommend the Infants to anyone, it's a shame they have to grow up.

- The foundation the school gives to the children is outstanding. The school is as good as a private school having relatives whose children go to private. School is outstanding in my humble opinion.
- Really good school which gives its best efforts in encouraging all children to do their best and gives ample praise for the smallest of good deeds by the children.
- We would like to thank the entire teachers and management to make our child settle well with the school. She joined last year when we came from India, she didn't feel it is a new place. The teachers are really helping her development we are encouraged to meet the teacher to discuss progress.
- Encouraging and caring. Mrs Goodwin and Miss Taylor provide a loving environment and I couldn't ask for a better start to Charlie's school years. There will be tears when Charlie has to leave them!!
