REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 27 – 20th April 2018

Ofsted Report

Our latest report has now been published and a copy has been sent home with the children as well as on Tapestry and the school website.

All the staff would like to say a huge thank you to all our children and families and friends for contributing to a really positive inspection and report. Please take the time to read the report in full, but here are a few extracts from it:

- “boys and girls were absorbed in their learning”*
- “adults are highly skilled in developing children’s skills and understanding”*
- “children get an exciting start to their education”*
- “children write with a real purpose and audience in mind”*
- “leaders are determined to improve the life chances of pupils”*
- “pupils behave well because they are interested in their learning”*
- “(the school) want children to reach the highest academic standards”*
- “leaders are deeply committed to making sure that every child enjoys their learning”*
- “parents and carers are supportive of school”

This week’s attendance – 97%
We have met our target this week, well done!

Water bottles - as the weather warms up children can bring in their own water bottles. Please ensure your child takes their bottle home to be washed every night.

Thought of the Week
“Have you ever had to be brave, and if so how?”
 Please talk to your child about the thought each week. This links to St George’s day on Monday 23rd.

NAG ON THE RAG
Please do not include nuts including peanut butter in your child’s packed lunch. We have a child with a severe nut allergy in school.
