REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 4– 28th September 2018

Thought for the Week... "What makes a good friend?"
We have been sharing anecdotes about friendship and spotting the skills needed to be a really good friend. The children suggested kindness, sharing, inviting others to join in their games and being helpful as qualities which make a good friend.

Early Years and Nursery have been enjoying exploring Kadinsky's art work. Look out for their wonderful display in the Year One corridor.

Year One are continuing to explore their outdoor area as well as building up a word bank of adjectives to improve their writing.

Year Two have been writing diary entries using Samuel Pepys as a starting point and are now writing diaries within their topic on Monsters.

MACMILLAN COFFEE AFTERNOON

Thank you to everyone who donated cakes and came and supported our MacMillan Cancer Support coffee afternoon yesterday. It was a fantastic event and we will let you know next week exactly how much we raised for this fantastic cause— so far it is well in excess of £200!
