

The Rednal Rag

REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 13– 10th December 2021

It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas...

Reception and Early Years Nativity

It was fantastic to be able to welcome parents in to school to watch the Nativity shows. We are very proud of all our Early Years children– they were so confident and sang and spoke beautifully. They have come so far in one term! Well done to everyone.

Year 1 and 2 Carols in the playground

We look forward to welcoming parents outside to listen to their children sing on the last day of term. Y1 at 1.30pm and Y2 at 2.30pm Friday 17th December. Tickets to follow.

Christmas Jumper Day Today

Thank you to everyone who donated to our Christmas Jumper Day today in exchange for a donation to Leukaemia UK. We will let you know next week how much we have raised for our chosen charity in recognition of one of our children in Year One who is currently undergoing treatment.

Christmas Dinner Day—Thursday 16th December

If your child brings a lunch box to school and would like a Christmas lunch next Thursday please let the school office know by Monday 13th December.

DIARY DATES

Tuesday 14th December—Board Games to school day

Thursday 16th December—Christmas Dinner Day

Friday 17th December—Carols in the Playground Y1 at 1.30pm and Year 2 at 2.30pm

Friday 17th December—Break up for Christmas

Christmas raffle

Thank you to everyone who has bought a raffle ticket, tickets are on sale until next Thursday 16th December and the draw will take place on Friday 17th December during assembly. The star prize is a bike along with several food hampers donated by local supermarkets.

Request

We would be grateful for any donations of plastic small toys for our small world in Early Years. Small animals or figures would be ideal. Also we are in need of children's socks in school. Please pass to your class teacher or the school office. Thank you

Last Property

Any remaining lost property items not claimed by Tuesday will be donated to the Rubery Community swap shop next week. If you are missing any uniform please come along and have a look. Thank you.

This Week's Congratulations go to:

Ash Class—Leo you have been trying so hard to learn your letter sounds in phonics. You are always listening and always ready to learn. Great work.

Elm Class—Tyrell for your enthusiasm to write this week. You labelled all of your models and even wrote a letter asking to make Gingerbread men next week. Well done.

Oak Class—Leo for his fabulous phonics work. He is working hard on his sounds and tricky words, well done.

Palm Class—Edith for your amazing maths this week. You have worked really hard to represent teen numbers using your tens frames. You were able to talk through your ideas and give reasons for your answers. Well done.

Hazel Class—Poppy you worked really hard to write a fact file all about Penguins. You included some amazing penguin facts. Well done.

Willow Class—Aidan you are a fantastic role model for all of the children in Willow Class. You amazed us with your Fact File all about penguins. You could think of lots of different facts to describe their habitat, appearance and diet. Wow.

Chestnut Class—Jenson who approaches all his work with enthusiasm and determination. We have all noticed how hard he is working and how well he is doing. We are proud Jenson. Keep it up.

Hawthorn Class—Matilda she was a fabulous narrator in Reception's Nativity she is so mature, willing to help and kind and helpful to the other narrators.

Sycamore Class—Charlie you wrote a fantastic diary as if you were an evacuee. Well done for writing about what happened and about your feelings.

WELL DONE EVERYONE!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
