

The Rednal Rag

REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 20 – 11th February 2022

As part of their work on our local area, Year 1 enjoyed a walk to the MG site, spotted local signs and buildings along the way.

This research will all feed into their Model Rednal Exhibition on Thursday 17th February@ 3pm when Year One parents and carers are invited into the School Hall to see the model houses and vehicles made by the children as part of their Model Rednal project. We look forward to showing you their hard work.

Every Book Counts

I AM SPECIAL!

I am special,
as special as can be.

No one in the world
is just like me!

CHILDREN'S
MENTAL HEALTH WEEK
7-13 FEBRUARY 22

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Alice you had some fantastic ideas about our “blubber” experiment and you were able to explain our findings.

Elm Class – Lewis for your confidence and strength on the monkey bars during PE this week. You inspired and encouraged other children to do the same too. Well done.

Oak Class – Bella for always being so willing and ready to learn and enthusiastic about our silver challenges.

Palm Class – Jax for his enthusiasm to learning in everything this week. Jax attempts everything with a smile and is extremely proud of what he creates. He enjoys sharing his learning with his friends and teachers. Well done.

Hazel Class – Yusuf you are our school values champion. Thank you for always being a role model to others and demonstrating each school value everyday for all to see. You are a superstar.

Willow Class – George you have impressed us this week with your counting— you are able to count more accurately.

Chestnut Class – Emily you wrote an interesting non-chronological report about space independently. Well done.

Hawthorn Class – Elah-Louise you have worked hard all week and shown resilience and perseverance in maths and writing this week.

Sycamore Class – Phoebe you are really shining in your phonics group! You are listening carefully and trying hard, your reading is improving.

Well done to everyone!
