

The Rednal Rag

REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 23 – 18th March 2022

British Sign Language Week and a visit from Fletch – our signing Guru!

We have had a lovely week learning some of the basic signs that hearing impaired people rely on. Mrs Miller, our Sign Language expert, visited all classes to talk to the children about signing. Later in the week Mrs Miller organised for Fletch, a professional signer to spend time in each class and teach the children signing. Fletch will be performing with Ed Sheeran later this year.

Fletch was blown away by our children and their enthusiasm for signing. You can find Fletch on at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UH4QK-Bt-Us>.

Covid Update – rising cases

Unfortunately, positive cases have risen quite noticeably in school this week. In order to prevent further outbreaks, please continue to monitor your child for Covid symptoms and use LFD tests if they appear unwell and continue to encourage regular handwashing and good personal hygiene.

Thank you for your support

Paper copies of current Knowledge Prompts were sent home last week to support your child's learning. Check out Tapestry for electronic copies or ask your child's classteacher for a spare paper copy.

Nag on The Rag

Please send your child to school with a coat as despite the sunshine it is still chilly outside

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Fish Class – George you are ALWAYS a Rednal role model. You demonstrate our school values every single day and we are so proud of you.

Elm Class – Isaac, you used the story map to do some super writing about the Jolly Postman.

Oak Class – Lilly, you have persevered with your junk modelling this week. You thought carefully and added detail to your models throughout the week. Well done.

Palm Class – Franklyn, for his interest and enjoyment learning different signs for British Sign Language Week. He showed enthusiasm and care when using the actions we have learnt and was keen to share with his friends. Well done.

Hazel Class – Jensen, for becoming more confident with his maths work this week. Keep believing in yourself, you are a super mathematician.

Willow Class – Zachary you have shown such enthusiasm during sign language week. You tried really hard to learn the signs to the songs we practised in class and you showed lots of respect when Fletch visited us. It was lovely you found it so inspiring.

Chestnut Class – Evie, for writing an exciting setting description using expanded noun phrases. Evie used a thesaurus to make her word choices even more interesting. Well done Evie.

Hawthorn Class – Oliver, you are an amazing artist. You look carefully and add details to your artwork. Your drawing of a mosque was fantastic.

Sycamore Class – Archie, you impress me so much when we are in forest school. Whether it is whittling, making habitats or playing imaginatively—you are a star.

Well done to everyone!
