

The Rednal Rag

REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL
Number 37– 15th July 2022

Congratulations to all of Year Two who put on three fantastic performances of their Leavers Show. Every single child played their part, worked hard and contributed to an awesome team effort. The commitment and confidence they showed tells us that they are more than ready to move to Year Three. We couldn't be more proud of them. Thank you to all the Rednal staff who worked alongside the children to pull the show together and to all of the parents and families who supported it.

This week's Congratulations go to...

Ash Class -Olivia we are so proud of the mature and sensible attitude you have in school each and everyday. You demonstrate all of our school values and are a real role model for all of your friends.

Elm Class—Arabella for your fantastic commitment to always being the best you can be. You take care and pride in all that you do and are an absolute pleasure to have in our class.

Oak Class -Ella your confidence has really blossomed over the last few weeks, you have showed resilience and are proving that you are ready for year one.

Palm Class —Vidhyuth for me being an 'always' child in palm class; always ready to learn, always there to help his friends and always showing our school values. Thankyou and keep it up.

Hazel Class – Obie you have been trying really hard during chime bar sessions. You listen carefully and enjoy performing to the class. Well done.

Willow Class — L'Ryah this week L'Ryah has listened really carefully to the writing feedback given to her by her teachers. She is working really hard to improve her presentation and size of her letter. She took her time to write a fact file all about herself, ready for her new teacher. We were super proud of her. Well done.

Chestnut Class —Libby consistently challenges herself and completes all her work to the best of her ability. Thank you, Libby.

Hawthorn Class— Imogen, She has been the greatest role model this year. She is an 'always' girl. She is always kind, helpful and hard working. Imogen tries her best in all she does.

Sycamore Class — Maddison for being so good at taking advice and working on improving in everything she does. She is consistently resilient and tries hard; this week her efforts have been rewarded with a golden pencil.
