School Attendance

A letter accompanies this newsletter today from Birmingham City Council regarding pupil attendance expectations. Please take time to read this annual update. Thank you.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Danny, you have had a fabulous week. You have settled so well into our class routine and are determined to try every single thing in our classroom, each day.

Elm Class - Mollie-rae, for great imaginative play this week and for taking turns with her friends. It's been an absolute pleasure having her in Elm class. Thank you

Oak Class - Tommy Lee, for settling so well. He challenges himself in all areas of learning and is always so keen to experience new things. We are very, very proud of him.

Holly Class — Isaac, for an enthusiastic start to Year One, you have got involved in all areas of your learning and shown our school values. Well done and keep it up.

Hazel Class – Mollie, for using Tapestry to showcase your learning and all of the fun things you do at home. You were enthusiastic and excited when sharing this with your friends. Thank you

Willow Class — Daisy, for settling into Year 1 so well and always being so polite and well mannered.

Chestnut Class — Rushaun, for making an excellent start to Year Two, he has a fantastic attitude to all we do and does so with a smile. Thank you.

Hawthorn Class — Olivia, for being an excellent role model. She demonstrates our school values and reminds everyone in our class how to be a good friend.

Sycamore Class — Zackariah, for his wonderful attitude and effort in his phonics group. He is ready to learn, sensible and tries his best.

Well done to everyone!
