READING

Thank you to Year 1 parents who came along to our Reading Workshop yesterday. We hope that it gave you lots of useful information.

The winner of the £15 Waterstones giftcard raffle was Dolly in Holly Class.

Research shows that putting the subtitles on the television helps children to become successful readers. Follow the link to read about the 'Kids read more when we turn on the Subtitles' campaign

Parent Governor Election

Following the vote for parent governor we would like to welcome Tania Peters to our governing body.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Harley, you have been trying really hard to make all of the right choices this week. Teachers have noticed your good listening and how quickly you're ready to learn. Well done.

Elm Class -Finley, for his enthusiasm for writing. He loves writing and always uses his sounds when writing words. We are so proud of you, Finley.

Oak Class -Hermione, for being so responsible during whole class sessions and using her listening ears really well. Lunchtimes ladies have also noticed this lovely listening in the playground.

Holly Class –Felicity for your amazing adjectives to describe Guy Fawkes. You could retell the story of The Gunpowder Plot and used adjectives to create a wanted poster for him.

Hazel Class –Crhuz for demonstrating respect when visiting St Stephen's Church. You listened and asked lots of wonderful questions.

Willow Class –Lottie for always being so eager and ready to learn. We were impressed with your mathematical skills this week, representing number bonds up to 10 using a tens frame and writing number sentences to match. Well done.

Chestnut Class –Muhammad, because he has shown wonderful learning behaviour this week. He has joined in well in lessons especially Maths and has impressed us with his number bonds. Well done, keep up the great effort.

Hawthorn Class –Jax for being such a helpful boy. He is always happy to help his teachers and friends and is always ready with a smile.

Sycamore Class Yasmeen, you have shown such a great attitude to learning this week in all your lessons. In particular, she was a terrific scientist this week, amazing us with vocabulary retrieved from year 1. Well done to everyone!
