Next week Lunch Menu
is Week 1

Welcome back and Happy New Year to all our families 2023

The whole staff team would like to say a very big thank you for all of your festive cards and gifts. Your kind words and appreciation are very gratefully received. We were touched by the thoughtfulness and care so many of you had gone to, especially when finances are so tight for everyone- so, thank you very much- for the handwritten cards, personalised gifts and hampers and handmade goodies.

From the Rednal Hill Staff Team

FREE COAT SWAP

Thank you for the many donations of children's coats we have received- if any family needs a warm coat they are available in the school foyer and will be on display in the playground after school next week. Please come and choose one.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – George, you have settled back into school after the holiday and have been independent within our routines. You confidently got yourself ready for PE and took care to keep your belongings safe.

Elm Class—Zara S for being such a keen mathematician this week. She has been finding out ways to make 5 and has been recording them in her own way. We are so proud of you.

Oak Class -Noah H for keeping us so up to date with all his learning over the holidays when he returned and sharing this on tapestry.

Holly Class –Nathan for your enthusiasm towards your learning. You are always ready to share your ideas and get stuck into every challenge. Well done.

Hazel Class – Caleb, you have settled well in your first week at school. You are making lots of new friends and joining in with all of the activities in Hazel Class. We are lucky to have you

Willow Class – Ella, you have been a superstar this week in maths showing number facts for ten and writing matching number sentences. Keep it up Chestnut Class –Muhammad, you skipped in with big smile and a Happy New Year for us all and have started the term as you mean to go on. Well done.

Hawthorn Class –Ebben has tried so hard in writing to build coherent sentences and use his phonics to help him write words. His behaviour has also been excellent on Day 1. What a good start.

Sycamore Class - Diego, you have come back to school after the holiday with a smile and you are clearly ready to learn. It has been lovely to have you back in the classroom.

Well done Everyone!
