This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class— Lenny, your teachers have been really impressed with your positive attitude towards school and your learning. You believe in yourself and know that you can complete any challenge by thinking carefully about how you're going to tackle it. We are really proud of you.

Holly Class— Tilly, for your enthusiasm and attention when finding out facts about King Charles and The Coronation. You have really enjoyed your learning and are very excited to celebrate The Coronation over the weekend.

Oak Class— Ajay, we are so proud of you. You have grown in confidence to now volunteer your ideas and understanding in phonics and maths. Keep it up.

Holly Class— Madison, for being an excellent volunteer in Holly Class. You have helped to keep our classroom clean and tidy, worked as a team with your friends and were a role model to us all. Well done and Thankyou.

Hazel Class— Danny, you shared your ideas with your friends on what material would and wouldn't be waterproof. You used your finding from your experiment to design a new coat for the king. Well done.

Willow Class— Edson, for your excellent oracy work during English. You were able to demonstrate an interesting sentence using a different opener. Well done.

Chestnut Class— JJ was able to use geographical language to describe and compare the coast to a city. Well done JJ.

Hawthorn Class— Jonah for always showing a calm but determined character. Even in tricky situations he manages to negotiate with others and help to rebuild friendships. He is an excellent teamplayer.

Sycamore Class— Alisia, she has shown excellent retrieval skills this week, participating in lessons and working hard to recall previous learning.
