REDNAL HILL INFANT SCHOOL Issue 34 –16th June 2023
'Be the very best you can be'

Next week Lunch Menu is Week 1

Miss Staff, Chestnut Class teacher and Year 2 lead is leaving us at the end of term after teaching at Rednal Hill for the last 12 years. She has accepted a new position at a local school near to her home in order to spend more time with her own children. Miss Staff is a much loved member of the staff team and an excellent teacher. She will be missed. We wish her well in her new job.

- Families are invited to walk round to their new classroom to say hello to their new teachers, after school on Thursday 6th July.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class – Rosemary, you created a fantastic sculpture out of clay. You used the tools to create the shape you needed and included such intricate details. Well done.
Elm Class—Zara S, you were a fantastic explorer at forest school this week. You were really confident when climbing through the willow and showed your friends how to do it safely. Well done.
Oak Class—John, you are a superstar. You have grown in confidence to now talk freely to us. You seek our help to write independently. Well done.
Holly Class —Arabella, for your super coronation coin design. You thought carefully about how to represent the King and London on your coin. You even included your initials like Martin Jennings. Well done.
Hazel Class – Luke, you have settled into Hazel class with ease. You are a kind, caring boy and you have already made lots of new friends. You are beginning to put up your hand to answer questions and join in with discussions. Well done.
Willow Class — Edison, for your super concentration during cricket this week. You were an excellent fielder and kept your eye on the ball. Well done.
Chestnut Class — Rohan who wrote a creative piece of writing about the London skyline, he carefully chose appropriate adjectives. Well done, Rohan.
Hawthorn Class – Ayva, for her effort in writing this week. She is trying hard in handwriting, making her letters the correct size and has been using a spelling mat to spell year 2 words correctly.
Sycamore Class - Ethan B has been a really resilient mathematician this week. He has methodically worked his way through some complex problems and used great mathematical language.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
