This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class - George, you have continued to challenge yourself with your reading both at home and at school. You persevered to read signs and labels around the classroom and have become very confident at blending the sounds together.

Elm Class—Violet you have amazed us with your phonics this week. You are sight reading lots of words and you use your phonics when labelling your work too. Well done.

Oak Class— Arthur, you are growing in confidence and showing lots of resilience.

Holly Class — Finley, you have been a super mathematician this week. You have been using your part part whole to show and write number sentences. Well done.

Hazel Class - Aurelia, you have a wonderful attitude to your learning and this week you have really impressed us with your maths work. You have been determined to answer and explain your maths answers, using correct vocabulary too.

Willow Class — Bellatrix, for super teamwork in P.E. this week. You worked well in your group to choose moves using different body parts.

Chestnut Class — Arley, for your fantastic diary about our school day. Your ideas were interesting and sequenced correctly. I really enjoyed reading it.

Hawthorn Class - Jessica, you are a very sensible, reliable, valued member of our class. We are so proud of how you are growing in confidence and self-belief to share your thoughts, ideas and understanding. Keep growing Jessica.

Sycamore Class - Tyrell, we have been really impressed with Tyrell's attitude, behaviour and learning this week. He really shone in science work about where food comes from.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
