Year 1 Phonics Workshops for Parents Next Week.

Parents are invited to come along to our class workshops next week to find out more details about the Phonic Screening Check and some of the fun, interactive ways we use phonics to support reading skills. See times for each class above.

This week's 'Congratulations' go to...

Ash Class—Daisy, you have been working so hard on your letter formation both at school and at home. You have been so proud to share your hard work on Tapestry too. Fantastic.

Elm Class—Adela, you have shown a great learning attitude this week and challenged yourself in all areas of the classroom. You have worked really hard to 'be the best you can be!' Well done.

Oak Class—Harlee-Rae, you have worked so hard on improving your handwriting and show great pride in the results.

Holly Class—Neima, you have made a wonderful start to our school. You have settled in well and have quickly become a happy member of Holly class. You have been polite and kind to everyone you have met. Well done.

Hazel Class—Jacob has been using evidence such as photos, newspaper and diary entries to find out information about the Great Fire of London. He worked well with a partner to share his ideas. Well done.

Willow Class—Maisie, for your resilience during D&T this week. You persevered in covering your box with masking tape before painting it ready for own own Great Fire of London. Well done.

Chestnut Class—Isaac, for your excellent attitude towards your reading this week. You have read with prosody and expression which has helped you to answer written comprehension questions. Well done.

Hawthorn Class—Crhuz, we are so very proud of your fantastic phonics and reading progression. You are reading fluently, using some expressions and can answer comprehension questions confidently.

Sycamore Class—Larisa, you come into school with a smile and are enjoying everything we do. You are also trying your best in all your learning.

Well done everyone!
